High IQ Bowl Information

The High I.Q. Bowl, now in its 41st year, is a scholastic competition that brings together the top students from all over North Carolina and Virginia. These outstanding Juniors and Seniors compete against one another for cash scholarships and bring deserved recognition to these states' brightest high school students.

The High IQ Bowl Tournament will be held as an all day event. The qualifying round will be in the morning and the final rounds will be held in the afternoon.

Please note the following tournament changes :

*Each team is responsible for an attester. Attestors duties have changed to include knowing how to keep time as well as score so they can be used in either capacity. GYC provides the stop watch.

*The Championship team will receive a trip to the National Championships in Washington D.C. GYC will pay for the registration fee and board. Transportation and meals are to be provided by the winning team.

What Makes A Team?

High I.Q. Bowl Teams should consist of:

4 or 5 Junior or Senior Members (Max of 2 Juniors per team)

I Attestor

I Coach

I Asst. Coach (optional)

What is an attester/score-keeper?

- This student will be keeping score or time for another team during the qualifying rounds.
- This student does NOT have to be a senior.

If you do not have an attester, you must sacrifice a team member.

ALL ATTESTORS
MUST BE TRAINED PRIOR TO SUPER SATURDAY!!!

Registration Information

Registration Fee: $90.00* *non-refundable

The registration deadline is Friday, December 15, 2006. The first 30 teams to register will be accepted. Only non-residential high school seniors from any county in North Carolina or Virginia may enter. Please remember that there is only one qualifying round. The eight top scoring teams will move on to the final rounds.

Sponsors

The Greensboro Youth Council has been sponsoring the High IQ Bowl for 40 years. They organize the entire event.

The Crescent Rotary Club has sponsored the $2000 scholarship level for the High IQ Bowl for over the past 12 years.

Greensboro Parks & Recreation Department is currently the sponsor of the $1000 second place scholarship level for the High IQ Bowl.
